

March 22, 2011

It is my very great pleasure and honor to supply this recommendation letter on behalf of Kristen Sadaly, as she applies for an elementary teaching position. As the Title I coordinator at Haine Elementary School, Miss Sadaly and I have been affiliated on a professional level over the past year. During this time, she served as my reading intern while completing her Reading Specialist certification. I am confident that she will be a vibrant and valued asset to any teaching staff.

I find myself uniquely qualified to support Miss Sadaly's candidacy, as I have observed her in numerous situations. In this regard, I have witnessed firsthand her dedication to the field of teaching, her dedication to her academic preparation, and her willingness to do what it takes in order to allow the students in her care rise to their full potential. Characteristics that lead me to believe you will be hard-pressed to find a more qualified candidate include but are not limited to:

- Miss Sadaly thrived during the irreplaceable opportunity as she collaborated, as well as, team taught with several K-3 veteran teachers. In this regard, I was truly captivated by her versatility. She approached any and all aspects of the work involved with eager anticipation. In this respect, she effectively completed Leveled Literacy Intervention (LLI) training. She productively implemented this program with our lowest remedial readers. The results were unbelievable!
- Miss Sadaly wrote lessons that were extremely detailed, thoughtfully planned, and educationally effective, and yet flexible enough to meet the needs of her students.
- Miss Sadaly's classroom management style seemed closer to that of a veteran teacher than to the intern that she is. Her maturity in dealing with students has always been evident and, as a result, she continuously commands real respect from all of them.
- Miss Sadaly has also on occasion, met with parents to address their concerns, and more importantly, highlight their child's strengths. She was continuously well received.

Overall, it is without hesitation that I endorse Miss Sadaly with absolute confidence. I trust that my brief highlights of Miss Sadaly's skills and qualifications illustrate that she is the exemplary candidate of choice. Should you require additional information, I would be happy to speak with you personally. (724) 776-1581

Sincerely,

Mrs. Amy Book